

How to Manage an Evolving Workforce: New Ideas & Practical Tools

Tuesday, May 22, 2018

8:30am-3pm

Hosted and sponsored by:

mount snow®
VERMONT

Who Should Attend - Senior managers, HR professionals, supervisors/managers, and employees of companies, small businesses and nonprofit organizations

Cost: $50/person, inc. light breakfast & lunch

This interactive day will include:

- Keynote Speaker - Shannon Prescott of The Richards Group & Chair, United Way of Windham County Board
- Self-care practices
- 90-minute Workshops to choose from:
 - Building & Leading a Successful Team
 - Effective Boundaries at Work
 - Hiring & Working with Individuals with Learning Differences
 - Identifying Your Leadership Style
 - Providing Effective Performance Feedback
 - Tools for New Managers

Design your own experience – choose 2 workshops, attend with your co-workers & share what you learn!

Space is Limited – Register at unitedwaywindham.org or call 802.257.4011

United@Work is a program of the United Way of Windham County that develops and shares effective initiatives and policies to help employers improve retention, productivity and advancement of their workforce.